ABOUT THE AREA

Antigua and Barbuda is a sovereign island country in the West Indies. It lies at the juncture of the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean in the Leeward Islands part of the Lesser Antilles. The country consists of two major islands, Antigua and Barbuda, which are approximately 40 km (20 mi) apart, and several smaller islands, including Great Bird, Green, Guiana, Long, Maiden, Prickly Pear, York, and Redonda. St. John's, Antigua, is the country's capital, major city, and largest port. Codrington is Barbuda's largest town.

The Leeward Islands is a group of islands located in the eastern Caribbean Sea. The term "Leeward" refers to the direction away from the prevailing winds, as these islands are situated on the western side of the Lesser Antilles chain, the Leeward Islands extend from the Virgin Islands in the North to Dominica in the South. They form part of the Lesser Antilles, which is a chain of islands stretching from Puerto Rico to the coast of South America. The Leeward Islands are nestled between the Atlantic Ocean to the East and the Caribbean Sea to the West.

Antigua, officially known as Antigua and Barbuda, is a small country located in the Caribbean region, Antigua is an island country that forms part of the Leeward Islands in the eastern Caribbean Sea. It is situated in the West Indies and is approximately 17 degrees north of the equator. Antigua is the largest of the islands in the country, while Barbuda is the smaller sister island. The island's perimeter is roughly 87 km (54 mi) and its area 281 km² (108 sq mi).

Saint George Parish is located on the island of Antigua, which is the largest of the two main islands in Antigua and Barbuda. It is situated in the central part of the island, bordered by Saint Peter Parish to the North and Saint Mary Parish to the South.

Jumby Bay is a private island located just off the coast of Antigua in the Caribbean, Jumby Bay is situated approximately two miles off the northeast coast of Antigua, making it easily accessible by a short boat ride from the mainland
