TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Located just over one mile away from Gstaad, the chalet offers a wonderful setting for a cosy Alpine holiday. Rebuilt and redesigned in 2008, the chalet seamlessly blends antique wood and contemporary furniture to create a stylish setting. Set over four levels, the property is ideal for families holidaying together or groups of friends looking for a relaxing mountain hideaway. The main level of the chalet is dedicated to a cosy living room with picture windows providing a gateway to the inspiring mountain views. An adjacent library / TV lounge, is furnished with oversized sofas set around a blazing fire. There is a fully-equipped kitchen with a breakfast table seating six, and a more formal dining room seating eight. French windows lead onto a wrap-around terrace, fully-equipped for al fresco dining when the weather is fine. The chalet has the luxury of a spa with a heated pool (6m x 2m), sauna and relaxation area. The property is able to accommodate up to ten guests across five stylish bedrooms. Each bedroom has pine shiplap walls, hardwood floors and wonderful vaulted ceilings. On the upper level are three king-size suites, sharing two bathrooms between them. The master suite is located on the main level and has access to the wrap-around terrace. On the lowest level is a further double bedroom, with split king-size bed and en-suite shower room. The property is equipped with high-speed internet and a laundry room. There is space for two vehicles in the chalet's garage.

ABOUT THE AREA

Switzerland, officially the Swiss Confederation, is a landlocked country at the confluence of Western, Central and Southern Europe. It is a federal republic composed of 26 cantons, with federal authorities based in Bern. Switzerland is bordered by Italy to the South, France to the West, Germany to the North and Austria and Liechtenstein to the East. It is geographically divided among the Swiss Plateau, the Alps and the Jura.

The canton of Bern or Berne is one of the 26 cantons forming the Swiss Confederation. Its capital city, Bern, is also the de facto capital of Switzerland. The bear is the heraldic symbol of the canton, displayed on a red-yellow background.

Gstaad is an upscale resort town in the Bernese Oberland region of the Swiss Alps. Its soaring mountains and prestigious international boarding schools have long made it a holiday destination for royalty and celebrities. Cable cars connect surrounding ski areas such as Wispile and Rinderberg, with hundreds of kilometers of all-level pistes and cross-country trails. Glacier 3000 offers nearly year-round skiing
