ABOUT THE AREA

Switzerland, officially the Swiss Confederation, is a landlocked country at the confluence of Western, Central and Southern Europe. It is a federal republic composed of 26 cantons, with federal authorities based in Bern. Switzerland is bordered by Italy to the South, France to the West, Germany to the North and Austria and Liechtenstein to the East. It is geographically divided among the Swiss Plateau, the Alps and the Jura.

Canton of Valais is one of the 26 cantons forming the Swiss Confederation. It is composed of thirteen districts and its capital and largest city is Sion. Valais is situated in the southwestern part of the country. It borders the cantons of Vaud and Bern to the North, the cantons of Uri and Ticino to the East, as well as Italy to the South and France to the West. It is one of the three large southern Alpine cantons, along with Ticino and the Grisons. It is a bilingual canton, French and German being its two official languages. Traditionally, the canton is divided into Lower, Central and Upper Valais, the latter region constituting the German-speaking minority.

An attractive, modern resort built in a traditional style, Verbier is without doubt one of Europe's top ski resorts with an abundance of luxury chalets. Verbier lies in a sunny, south-facing bowl with spectacular views of the surrounding peaks; it is the largest resort of the "4 Vallées" ski region, with over 400km of piste, Verbier is home to some of the most challenging yet rewarding skiing in the Alps and some of the best luxury chalets.
