TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Set on 11-acres of prime beachfront, Greensleeves is the ultimate luxurious tropical villa, styled with oriental notes and a tranquil koi pond at the entrance the lavish grounds. With direct access to two pristinely white beaches along the esteemed and palm-fringed Platinum Coast of Barbados, Greensleeves has an enviable position on the lush Caribbean island. The exclusive vacation villa comprises nine spacious en suite bedrooms, each with their own terrace, some of which look out to the breath-taking turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea. With a special two bedroom children's wing and nanny accommodation, the beautiful villa is a perfect option for large families or groups of up to thirty members. Guests have access to tennis courts and a selection of water sports equipment, and if they choose not to spend the day snorkelling or enjoying the warm sea, Greensleeves also houses a free-form pool with its own coconut tree-lined mini island and swim-up bar – the perfect setting for cocktails at dusk. As the sun sets, guests may head to the in-house cinema to wind down in its cool and plush ambience, complete with popcorn of course. An accomplished private chef will cook up sumptuous meals for guests, or alternatively they may choose to explore the many local culinary hotspots and discover the island's delicacies in the most authentic way. Greensleeves' staff and concierge service will gladly provide excellent recommendations for a memorable stay in Barbados, beginning right from the moment guests touch down on the island

ABOUT THE AREA

Barbados is an island country in the Lesser Antilles of the West Indies, in the Caribbean region of the Americas, and the most easterly of the Caribbean Islands. It occupies an area of 432 km² (167 sq mi) and its capital and largest city is Bridgetown.

The Parish of Saint Peter is one of eleven parishes in the Caribbean island country of Barbados. It is named after the Christian Apostle and patron saint, Saint Peter. It is located in the north of Barbados, and is the only parish besides Saint Lucy that extends from the east coast to the west.
